TAFTVILLE

No longer will it be necessary to employ water boys at the Ponemah Mills as has been done since the mill was built. It has been a common sight to see a boy or man leave the mill with two pails slung from a yoke across their shoulders, go to the old "Town Pump" and draw water. The "Old Town Pump" is now connected with the mill and there is running water all the time. Sanitary fountains have been installed throughout the mill, a feature that is greatly enjoyed by the employees as it gives them a chance to get a good cold-drink of water at any time.

"Idle Moments in The Village—"African Gold." The cube craze or what is more commonly known as that famous southern game of shooting craps has struck the village and has supplanted the time-honored game of pool. On most any afternoon and especially on Sundays one may see a group of young men and boys in devout kneeling postures around a blanket in the old mill and earnestly saying to "Old Lady Luck" to make those "Galloping Dominoes" turn up a seven.

One who is very seldom and is not familiar with the game would be entirely in the dark from all they could gather from the remarks that are uttered in such an earnest and imploring tone of voice. "Come home to papa. 'Lil Joe, you never did stay in school. You're a 'tween seven, don't let me now." "Come, you great big natural I need you now." "Read 'em and weep" are the exclamations that proceed from the group gathered about the blanket. The game continues until the majority of the party go broke or an officer of the law hails in sight, which is very seldom and then the party moves to different surroundings.

Louis Wohlleben and Samuel Marcell on Thursday evening took a fishing trip up the river to the Occum flats and at a late hour returned with a good sized catch of bull-heads.
 David O'Brien has purchased a new automobile which he is to use in his business.

Miss Christine Miller, Miss Fannie Corbin and Mary Murphy are spending a few days in New London as the guests of friends.
 Misses Deborah and recently arrived in this country after a year's service in France has been discharged of Camp Mills and is at his home in the village.

Miss Elizabeth Farrell of New Bedford is the guest of Miss Jennie Mc-Sheffery, South A street, for a few days.

Peter Meoli of this village is spending a few days in Hartford where he has gone on business.
 Charles Daignault has returned to his home here after a two months stay with friends in Canada.

Ulric Pepin who has been staying in New York for the past week has returned to his home here.
 Local members of Battery D of the 108th regiment have received notice requesting them to be present at the reunion of the battery which is to be held at Ocean Beach on Aug. 17. The object of the reunion is to talk over old times and to plan for future gar-therings.

Much enthusiasm is shown over the prospect of a branch of the American Legion in the village among the ex-service men. To discuss plans for the same a meeting has been called for Monday night which is to be held in the K. of C. rooms.

George Benker has been transferred from Mill No. 1 to Mill No. 4 of the Ponemah company.
 Laurence Blanchard is confined to his home on Providence street with a severe illness.

Harry Pepin, who is a member of the Willamette State Guard spent a few days at his home here.
 Miss Stella Blaisie is spending the week-end at Mr. McGuire's farm in Preston.

Hartford—John L. Dower of Hartford, and Mrs. May Tittmer of Denver, Col., are engaged to marry, although announcement of the engagement had not yet been made by Mrs.
 Tittmer's family.

EVENTS OF FIFTY YEARS AGO

The lively stables of E. S. Osgood and Rathbun were damaged by fire 50 years ago which also destroyed a tenement house. An engine of the Norwich and Worcester Railroad backed through the bridge onto the tracks 15 feet below.

Extracts from the Bulletin's files of '69 follow:
 July 19, 1869—About five minutes of eight Sunday evening flames were seen shooting from the rear part of the building on Bath street, owned by the Norwich Horse Railroad company, and occupied by E. S. Osgood as a boarding stable. The flames had gained considerable headway by the time the various horse companies arrived and they devoted their attention to saving the surrounding buildings. Rathbun's stable caught fire as did a tenement house but little damage was done. The total loss will not exceed $7,000.

The city at a meeting appointed a committee to investigate the condition of the bridge and make report to a meeting in the near future.
 Some would call it desecrating the day to go away, but the ladies of the party on the Thames yesterday afternoon "took the curse off" by sweetly warbling "Gather at the River" as their gallant partners rode the craft over the almost untripped water.

July 20, 1869—A little before 12 o'- clock on Saturday John Calebs, an engineer to the Norwich and Worcester Railroad, was riding on the bridge across the bridge over the Shetucket river, to bring back some coal cars. When he reached the bridge he opened and shutting the gate at the bridge supposed Calebs would not be back for sometime, opened the gate and the engine had passed over. The Thames got the cars and started back, having got a short distance onto the bridge. Calebs, who was riding on the engine, saw the train and started to open. He reversed his engine and taking his two children who were in the engine cab with him, jumped to the bridge. His front end of the engine pressed forward by seventy cars went over the edge, dropping to the track below, a distance of about 15 feet. Traffic was blocked for some time but no serious damage was done.
 The city water had been turned on upon Thames street and two-thirds of the residents have taken their homes.
 The pipes extend to within a short distance of the city line.

July 21, 1869—Among the prices which were current in this date are the following: Sirloin steak 25 and 30 cents; porterhouse steak, 25 and 30 cents; butter, 30 and 35 cents per pound; eggs, 35 cents per dozen; the night for any fresh fish was 17 cents per pound; prices were in common.

There is much enthusiasm over the picnic of the Norwich Light Infantry which will go to Rocky Point on Monday. The Granite State will take the picnic down. The object is to raise money for new uniforms.
 July 22, 1869—Out of thirty-nine who took the examinations for entrance to, afterword Free Academy twenty-eight are admitted. There will be another chance however, and it is expected that on the second time nearly all will be admitted.

The announcement that a horse trot would take place at the fair grounds yesterday drew out the usual crowd of sportsmen. The horses entered were "Lazarus" by Charles McChesney, and "Awful" by Noble Thompson. The first heat showed the Las-zarus in bad condition and unfit for racing. The three heats were taken by Awful easily in 3.07, 3.05 and 3.58. Lazarus was distanced on each heat.

July 23, 1869—The committee on public grounds of the court of common pleas, the Aldermen, William chairman, have in contemplation certain improvements in the parks and cemeteries by which their natural beauty will be enhanced, their artistic attractions increased and the public relieved from inconvenience.

The following appointments of engineers for the superior court of New London county for the ensuing year are announced: Clerk, W. L. Brewer; assistant clerk, Walter Park; attorney, Daniel Chadwick.

Jewett City was thrown into a fever of excitement Thursday afternoon by a sad accident. One of the shipman, He was riding on a load of live and losing his balance fell to the ground striking on his back and shoulders.
 He sustained injury to the chest, ribs and spine. He was taken to the hospital and is now in a critical condition.

July 24, 1869—The young girl Ellen Hickey who strayed away from the home and family of Mr. Tuck of Jewett City, after service at the Congregational church last Sunday, appeared at the Plainfield hotel about midnight, weary, hungry and sad. After waiting for some time she was taken to the home of the Rev. Mr. Tuck where she had been kindly treated declared she was his house. Word was sent to Mr. Tuck of the arrival of the girl in Plainfield.

LOOK FOR PROFITS IN WHISKEY SALES NEXT MONTH When the wartime prohibition is declared to be at an end, and it will be so declared about the middle of August, according to the estimates of the war department, for the troops will all be home from France then and the president will demolish the army, the nation will desire to have large quantities of whiskey will make a large sum of money. There are many thousands of barrels of whiskey in bond with the government taken out and disposed of when the troops are allowed to open up for their brief period of cleaning out before the constitution is made. The making the country dry goes into effect. There are thousands of dealers who have no liquor in bond, and no whiskey has been made during the past two years, so that the supply is a limited one, while the demand by the army who desire to store some of red-eye for future use will be great.
 Judged by the demand that was made prior to the 1st of July, when the wartime prohibition was in effect, the rush to get whiskey for the future will be such as has not been known by the dealers in the past. The dealers who happen to have a big quantity of whiskey bought and in bond are mighty pleased with the outlook. When it is calculated that a barrel of whiskey when it comes from the bonded warehouses represents about $500 with the government tax paid, the value of the whiskey can be estimated.

NOANK
 Orville Specht from Maine, who is visiting relatives here on his way to Panama leaves today (Saturday).
 Work will commence in the shipyard Monday morning, the government having decided to have the hull, which is nearly 75 per cent. done, finished up. It is possible that one or more of the other boats there will also be finished but nothing definite is known concerning this. At least 20 men will have employment for a month, possibly longer and while resumption of work will not be the boom hoped for it will be none the less welcome and will do a lot of good in the present conditions of the village.
 Lobsters are bringing 15 cents a pound and are plentiful. The men have found trouble in hauling their traps, however, in the past wet week.
